

FASFAA Listserv Policy

FASFAA operates a number of listservs; some are open and unmoderated, some are unmoderated but require an invitation to join, while others are both invitation-only and moderated. The intent of the FASFAA listservs is to provide a useful and informative means of communicating with FASFAA members and others on other issues in higher education.

Lively and candid exchanges are encouraged; however, subscribers agree that they have read and will comply with the following rules and guidelines.
